

REGIONAL EDITION

AUSTRALIA

Editorial. Winter Wonderland in Switzerland

Dear Readers

I wish you all a Happy New Year. My wife, Meredith, and myself were very privileged to spend our first white Christmas in Switzerland and celebrating together with family. Therefore, I thought it would be very appropriate to make you a bit "gluschtig" with some nice Winter pictures we took around my home town in Solothurn and while skiing in Zermatt.

Consulate. Travelling with Swiss-Australian Citizenship

The Schengen Treaty is an agreement between signatories where the free movement of persons between states in Europe is guaranteed. Switzerland is a signatory to this which means that common European rules for short stay visas and border controls are applied. Travel for citizens of states who are signatories is simple and citizens are able to enjoy free movement between all signatory states.

Of the 24000 Swiss nationals living in Australia, 80-85% of them are dual citizens of both Australia and Switzerland. This is a fantastic privilege to live and work in both Australia and Switzerland, however, there is a responsibility to stay informed when you travel on two passports.

According to the Airport police in Zurich, many Swiss citizens of dual nationality are caught out whilst travelling to and from Switzerland. This happens when Swiss citizens travel to Switzerland, have their Australian passport stamped and their presence in Switzerland registered as an Australian citizen.

It is possible to forget this when you are visiting friends and family and accidentally overstay the 90 days permitted as an Australian citizen when you are in fact a Swiss citizen, too! Similarly, problems can arise when entering Switzerland on an Australian passport and leaving on your Swiss passport. Your registration on the computer systems will not be updated and you may face problems at the border when you travel to Europe again.

The Airport Police in Zurich suggests that you enter and leave Switzerland and Europe on your Swiss passport or Swiss identity card to avoid any unnecessary complications. However, if you enter Switzerland only on your Swiss identity card, don't forget to bring also some Australian travel documents in order to avoid problems when re-entering Australia after your visit to Switzerland.

If you are travelling to Europe on your Swiss passport or Swiss identity card you will be subject to the soft track border control which requires you to show a valid Swiss travel document. If you are travelling on your Australian passport this requires you to present, not only your passport, but possibly also proof of sufficient funds in your bank account, your visa and/or proof of accommodation and medical insurance.

Schengen-countries: Austria, Belgium, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Iceland, Italy, Latvia, Liechtenstein, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, the Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden and Switzerland

Consulate. Do We Know Your Details?

Please be sure to notify the Consulate General in Sydney about your new address, phone number, e-mail address, etc., without delay: <http://www.eda.admin.ch/eda/en/home/rebs/ocea/vaus/cgsyd.html>. In this way you can be sure you will receive voting documents (provided you are registered with a Swiss municipality) and copies of "Swiss Review" "Newsletter" at your new (email-) address.

After a very eventful and memorable 2011 for our Choir, 2012 looks to be much quieter. Many of our members have got to an age when they are looking for a 'sea-change' or some other exiting adventure in retirement. Yodeller Godi Schmuki, a foundation and honorary member of the Choir, has decided, after 42 years of playing a leading role in the Choir, that it is time to withdraw to a passive role. And yodeller, Urs Zuber and 2nd bass Bruno Frick will be joining the 'grey nomads' and for the next year or so, explore the many beautiful places Australia has to offer. We thank all three of them for the great contribution they have made and wish them and their partners all the best for their new adventures.

The choir is now in recess and we will consider how to continue into the future. Of course, we would be very happy to hear from anybody who would like to join the choir, and especially from someone who could develop into a leading yodeller (Jodler oder Jodlerin).

Gruezi mitenand / welcome to the New Year

Ruth, our Treasurer and Bush walk coordinator was the leader for the "Spring-Bush walk in November at Onkaparinga National Park. The path went up and down, and we even saw a few Kangaroos crossing our path. With a short stop at the beautiful lookout over the valley. Ruth spoiled us with coffee, tea and a self-made Zopf (bread). What a great park so close to our doorstep.

The Christmas Party at Morialto Park with perfect weather was fantastic and many family members and friends attended the party. As in the last few years we had a visit from Santa Claus, who brought all the kids a bag - free for all the members. This year's bags were sponsored by a member of the Swiss Club.

The first weekend in February is our Camping Weekend at Port Eliot. Come along and leave the hustle and bustle of the city behind and join us at this beautiful caravan park at Port Eliot. End of February till mid March is the Fringe in Adelaide. Come along and have a night out to see a "Swiss Movie". For Members of the Club free of charge.

Dear Friends

A successful year for the Swiss Club of WA comes to an end. The new committee comprising of Karin Villemín, Nicole Waldmeier, Simon Waldmeier, Peter Spaeni, Paul Schaub and Nicole Gasser and the old hand, Pierre Bratschi, set as goals to have the traditional functions of the Club continue and to attract new members and have the existing members come back to celebrate the various Swiss related events.

First up was the Metzgete / Slaughter Feast at the Rhein Donau Club where a full hall ensured a night that was enjoyed by all with fine food and entertainment. The Easter picnic at Gidgegannup had a lot of children's activities including egg colouring, and the old favourite, the Easter egg hunt. Then we had the Fondue at the North Perth Bowling Club. This was another night where we had a full house with a great fondue and a cheesy smell. The first of August Ball and the bonfire saw a lot of traditional entertainment, including the Alphorn Blowers and the Yodellers. In September, we had the annual spring walk at Bickley Dam. A large crowd braved the weather conditions and the smell of sausages filled the air at the conclusion of the walk. The annual picnic saw the strong men and women compete in the Stei-Stosse / Stone Throwing as well as the water balloon throwing competition. The year's events were brought to an end with the Samichlaus / Santa Claus. This year, he was accompanied by a "Schmutzli". A few of the children were told that they have to help their mum at home and it appears after all these years, some still need to be reminded to share with their siblings!

This leaves me with thanking my fellow committee members for all their efforts and hours spent planning and executing. There were also numerous other people that have helped make this year successful. Thank you very much, it is not easy to find volunteers and you can all be proud of what you have helped to achieve this year.

The Swiss club of NSW has organised some dates for the next few outings.

January 29 is a Brunch organised by the Circle romand in Clontarf reserve at 11am.

February 19 is the annual Jazz picnic at Berry Island North Sydney organised by the Swiss club as of 11am. February 23 is an important Fundraiser for the new Swiss Historical Book, which is in the final stage of printing; organised by the Consul General, Mr. Markus Mehli and Sonia Schweizer.

March 3 is the Swiss community care society function; place to be organised. March 16/17/18 Camping weekend combined with Circle Romand, Swiss Dancers and the Swiss Club at Kangaroo valley.

April 15 is the Fondue Vigneronne at Fagan Park Galston. Again, this outing is combined and organised by the Circle Romands and the Swiss Club.

The Swiss Club together with the Swiss Playgroup have had the annual Samichlaus Event at the Scandinavian Club at Frenchs Forest on 4 December. All kids had enormous fun and received a hot dog, drink and a nice looking Goodies Bag from Santa. Like every year, this is always a very well attended event. Everyone helps on the day to make sure all are fed and happy. It's a real teamwork situation, and of course, a lot of preparation and work; thanks to all the volunteers who helped on that day.

The Usplampete at the Eiger restaurant was well attended also, where the Swiss club provided nuts, chocolates and Christmas cookies to all members and their friends.

Barry Mc Kane had interviewed and recorded some members on the Day, which he then put on the Swiss Club web page and YouTube. Everyone had fun with this last activity for that Year, thanks to the never tiring Sigi Ackermann and his accordion as he entertained the crowd. Once again, a special thanks goes to him.

Our group joined with the Swiss Yodel Choir "Matterhorn" from Melbourne for a long weekend in Wagga Wagga at the end of October. There was much win-ing, dining, singing and exploring the local tourist attractions of which there are many. Our thanks once again go to Elisabeth and John Rorrison of Wagga Wagga who were integral in organizing a Mayoral reception at the Council Chambers, where we were given a warm welcome as we performed in front of the local community. On both Saturday and Sunday, we performed at the Wagga Wagga Botanical Gardens during the annual festival which is held there. Thinking of touring in NSW? The yodelers can heartily recommend Wagga Wagga.

The AGM was held in November and there are no changes to report. The group had pleasure in attending the Seniors' Christmas Luncheon at the German Club in Tempe recently, where we performed and sang Christmas Carols together with those attending. Our thanks go to Regula Scheidegger who accompanied us delightfully on violin for the Carols.

We start singing (practising) in early February so if you feel like having a go do come along, just give me a call
