Portrait of the artist Hans Brüttsch

Johann Jakob Brüttsch 'Hans' was born on 27 May 1928 in Töss and grew up in Winterthur, Switzerland, with his parents and two younger sisters. In 1951, aged 23, Hans migrated to New Zealand and worked as a shepherd on farms around Auckland. He met and later married Fay Flynn in 1954. They lived in the Waikato on a farm where Hans worked as a shepherd.

Here they had their first child. In 1960 they moved to Auckland where they had bought property. Hans worked as a painter and decorator. In 1962 they had their second child.

In the 1970's Hans began painting landscapes and still life in oils, entirely self-taught. He painted in soft sepia tones, with delicate brushwork, painting farmland, sheep, cattle, seascapes and even steam trains. Hans' style was unique. He became extremely popular and successful and was soon a full time artist selling to buyers in New Zealand and overseas. He also completed commissioned works. In Auckland Hans exhibited with the Downtown-Hilton, Courtneys and the International Art Centre. In the 1980s the family moved to Motueka where Hans painted prolifically, the stunning landscapes of the area. Here he exhibited with the Rutherford Gallery in Nelson. Two years later the family moved to Wanganui and Hans went on to paint the impressive North Island scenery.

Hans had a deep passion for the New Zealand landscape, his Swiss homeland and farming, which was evident in his paintings. He died on 27 August 2014, aged 86.

PNG: moningstar in Papua New Guinea

Too many children in Papua New Guinea have no hope for a future worth living for. They grow up in the circle of the settlement life. Since 2016, moningstar has given the children opportunities to break out from that circle. The moningstar-team at Goroka meets with around 130 children weekly in the settlements and provides life-changing afternoons. In addition to the weekly programs, moningstar plans the second Kids Camp in April 2018. More information: www.moningstar.org

On 24 November our committee held a barbeque at the Club house. This was a very casual affair, with committee members and life members enjoying the meal, a drink or two and plenty of chatter with fun and laughter; a very nice social event for us to enjoy, after several busy functions.

The Christmas Shoot/Keglen was held on 26 November with a good crowd attending. Christmas activities were organised for the children, and the swings and basket were enjoyed by both children and adults! The shooting range and the keglen alley were kept busy, and everyone enjoyed a pot-luck lunch before Father Christmas arrived. The children were all very attentive and were most polite when receiving their presents and lollies. Prize-giving for adults was then completed, with all participants going into the mystery prize draws. Many thanks, Mark, for organising another great day!

11/2: Annual Swiss Picnic. 11.00am. Plenty of activities, with the highlight being the Schwingen (for the young and the young at heart!). Plenty of food and drink available. The Trachtentanzgruppe Baar will be attending, so come along and have a terrific day!!!

This is only the beginning. More will come later in the year. The committee looks forward to meet many of you at an event and wishes a happy, fulfilling and healthy new year.

TAS: Celebrating the Swiss Heritage

For some years the traditional Swiss National Day was celebrated at the property of Ms Ann Chess at Layponia who was always the most congenial host. But now, Renata and Gradus Groenveld have taken over this event to be held at their property.

At this recent gathering everyone thanked Ms Ann Chess for her contribution in keeping the Swiss Spirit alive and her many years of hosting this event plus the work and generosity it takes to organise it.

The recent gathering was held on 22 October in Penguin, Tasmania, albeit sometime after the traditional Swiss National Day due to weather and circumstances. Still it was a most enjoyable warm sunny day where the guests participated in the traditional 'Cervelat Brötlete'.

If you would like to attend this once-a-year celebration, the Groenveld's can be reached on renata.groenveld@bigpond.com

Consulate: From the new Consul General

Dear Readers of the Swiss Review

Dear Swiss in Australia

From all the staff at the Consulate General of Switzerland in Sydney I would like to wish you all a very happy New Year and at the same time introduce myself as the 'new' Consul General of Switzerland in Australia.

I took over the position from my predecessor, Ernst Steinmann, towards the end of July last year. I am joined on this journey by my husband, Nigel Brown.

I was raised in Ebersecken in Switzerland and joined the Swiss Federal Department of Foreign Affairs in 1982. After consular training in Berne and Venice, I was subsequently transferred to the Swiss consular and diplomatic representations in New York, Rome, Canberra and Santo Domingo. From 1999 to August 2007, I was Deputy Head of Mission, as well as heading the consular and administrative sections of the Swiss Embassies in Wellington and in Maputo. I then spent two years as Counsellor and Deputy Head of Mission at the Swiss Embassy in Dublin before being appointed Consul General of Switzerland in Toronto in November 2009. In August 2013, I was transferred to Cape Town and now I am in Sydney.

Australia is not entirely new to Nigel and me, as I was previously posted in Canberra and met Nigel during that posting. He had been living in Australia for more than ten years before I came along and took him away. Coming back to this great and beautiful country is – for both of us – a really wonderful opportunity.

I look forward to meeting as many of you as possible during the next four years. Please be assured that together with my team here at the Consulate General we will do our best to offer you an outstanding service and support. With over 25,000 Swiss registered in Australia there are always many civil status updates and questions. Never hesitate to contact us with your queries.

Best wishes for a healthy, prosperous and happy New Year.
